This map illustrates the proposed expansion of Queens Community Board 6. The expansion boundary is shown as a dashed yellow line, extending from the Long Island Expressway in the north to the Grand Central Parkway in the south, and from the Queens Boulevard in the west to the Van Wyck Expressway in the east. The map includes a detailed street grid with various streets labeled, such as 51 Avenue through 82 Avenue, and 62 Road through 82 Road. Key landmarks include Hoffman Park, Lost Battalion Hall Recreation Center, Flushing Meadows Corona Park, and Mount Hebron-Cedar Grove Cemetery. The map also shows existing transit infrastructure, including subway stations (MTA) and LIRR stations, and planned Citi Bike stations with cardinal directions indicated by colored triangles. Protected bike lanes are shown in green, and conventional bike lanes are in blue. The map is dated 10/23/25 and is titled 'Queens Community Board 6 Expansion Plan'.
